2008-2009 HIGH SCHOOL PARENT MEETING & TRYOUT INFORMATION

INFORMATIONAL MEETING & OPEN GYM:

Parents/Athletes: Another exciting year for Prime Time Volleyball is just around the corner. The coaches for Prime Time have been meeting and working hard in the off-season to prepare the upcoming season to be the best yet. It is imperative for us to have the opportunity to meet with all the parents and potential athletes before the season begins to lay out expectations, modifications from previous years, etc. Even if you're not sure that you want to play club, please attend to learn more and ask lots of questions!

Athletes: After the parent meeting concludes, there will be an open gym for volleyball players interested in Prime Time. You will run through drills and experience a small part of what Prime Time is like. And, you'll get to meet some of the coaches and other potential club teammates as well.

Important Note: If you are still in HS season by the dates of the parent meeting / try-outs, you still should be in attendance. You may not, however, participate in any sort of drills while still in the high school season.
